1 INTRODUCTION

The objectives of this course are:

Improve vocabulary and fluency

Transition from giving answers in written English to spoken English.

Develop the ability to describe and discuss topics using a variety of tenses

Develop the ability of students to give answers spontaneously

Decrease students' reliance on AI and encourage independent thinking

2 DELIVERY

Each lesson starts with a video, role play, a series of interactive games, a video demonstrating how to give model answers on the day's topic and finally students practising an IELTS Speaking part 1 or part 2 exam question.

There will be a mid-term exam which will account for 10% of your in-class score. There may also be a group presentation, time permitting.

Transcripts from videos and model answers, including a list of vocabulary, will be shared in the class WeChat group. You can use model answers to get ideas on how to answer exam questions.

3 RULES OF THE CLASSROOM

Arrive to class on time

No talking or playing on mobile phones/laptops/tablets when the teacher is talking

No talking or playing on mobile phones/laptops/tablets when students are responding to questions

No talking or playing on mobile phones/laptops/tablets when videos are playing

Taking a break to smoke is not allowed

Short toilet breaks are allowed, though students should use the time between classes

4 IELTS SPEAKING EXAM QUESTIONS

Students are assessed in class and in exams based on their answers to IELTS Speaking Part 1 and IELTS Speaking Part 2 exam questions.

For Part 1, students are prompted by the examiner to give answers to common topics. Each answer should be less than a minute in length.

For Part 2 questions, students are given a minute to prepare their answer to a topic shown on a cue card.

Students will be given a pen and paper on which to make notes. Students should speak uninterrupted for 1-2 minute.

5 TOPICS

The topics for this term are:

Unit 1. Where You Live

Unit 2. Social Media

Unit 3. Jobs

Unit 4. Shopping

Unit 5. Clothes

Unit 6. Music

Unit 7. Tourism

All exam questions will be practised during the course, students will not be given questions in the exam that they have not previously practised.

6 GRADING

Grades are based on combining in class assessment scores and a final exam score. In-class participation accounts for 60% of the final mark and the exam accounts for 40% of the final mark. The grades are as follows:

A (90.00-100)

B (80.00-89.00)

C (70.00-79.99)

D (60.00-69.00)

F (0.00-59.99)

D is a pass, F is a fail.

7 IN-CLASS ASSESSMENT

In-class assessment scores are based on a student's participation in class, adherence to the rules of the classroom, attendance and answers to exam questions. At the end of every lesson, each student will give their answer to an IELTS Speaking Part 1 or Part 2 exam question and then be graded poor, good, very good. e.g.

Answers will be recorded and detailed feedback on these answers will be given to one student in every lesson.

For example, in response to the following question:

IELTS Speaking Exam. Food. Part 2

Describe a time when you experienced a new food for the first time. You should say:

what the food was where and when you tried it

how it tasted

and explain whether or not you would try it again.

A student gave the following answer:

I'm going to describe when you try the new food for me first. When I travelled to Suzhou last summer, I ate a kind of food named Shaohu. It's made with eel and some strange flavour, I don't know what they are.

And in my mind, the taste of it is so strange. It tastes like something brown, and it's very salty. I can't understand why people live there like these kinds of food. Maybe they are used to it, I don't know.

But the certain thing I know is that I will never try it again. The taste is so strange and unbearable to me. I don't like it. It's terrible, to be honest. I think it's disgusting.

Suggested Answer

I'm going to describe when I tried a new food for the first time. When I travelled to Suzhou last summer, I ate a kind of food named Shaohu. It's made with eel and some strange ingredients, I don't know what they were.

And in my mind, the taste of it was so strange. It tasted like something brown, and it was very salty. I can't understand why people who live there like this kind of food. Maybe they are used to it, I don't know, it's an acquired taste, but one thing is certain, I know that I will never try it again. The taste was so strange and I found it unbearable. I didn't like it. It was terrible, to be honest. I thought it was disgusting.

8 FEEDBACK

Feedback is provided at the end of the first month. The feedback will grade student's on their performance, show their attendance, highlight any strengths and weaknesses and suggest areas for improvement. The in-class score given at the end of the first month is not the final in-class grade score. The table below shows feedback given to students after the final exam.
