

SANDRO BOREM. NICE NEIGHBOURHOOD. TRANSCRIPT

Girl: We really like the apartment.

Luis: Yeah, it's good. Very roomy.

Sandro: Good.

Girl: What's the neighbourhood like?

Sandro: Oh, it's a very special neighbourhood. There's a real mix of people here. There are older people, young families, and students. There's a lot of different cultures.

Girl: So it's a safe neighbourhood?

Sandro: Oh yes, it's very safe and quiet. There isn't much noise, well, usually.

Girl: Is there much crime?

Sandro: Oh no, there isn't much now.

Girl: Now?

Sandro: Well, there were some problems, but that was 10 years ago.

Girl: Okay.

Luis: What about public transportation?

Sandro: The public transportation is excellent. It's just a few minutes to downtown.

Girl: We like to eat out. Are there many restaurants and coffee shops?

Sandro: Oh yes, there are a lot of restaurants. Just take a walk down the street to the end and you'll see. There are lots of Greek and Italian restaurants. There's Indian, Chinese, everything.

Girl: Sounds great.

Luis: Okay, let's take a look. Thank you for your help.

Sandro: It was my pleasure. Give me a call this afternoon, 'cause this apartment won't last long.

Girl: Okay, thank you. Bye.

Luis: Bye.

Sandro: Bye.

Girl: I love that bookstore. What a great neighbourhood.

Luis: Yeah.

Girl: There's a movie theater and restaurants.

Luis: Movie theater, restaurants...

Girl: There's a furniture store.

Luis: Yeah.

Girl: And there's a jewellery store. My birthday's coming up next month.

Luis: Yeah, I know.

Girl: Look, Luis, there's a really nice grocery store.

Luis: Yeah, it's a nice grocery store.

Girl: And there are a lot of really good coffee shops. I really like this neighbourhood.

Girl: Yeah, it's really great.

Luis: Wow! That's an amazing guitar.

Girl: So, can we take the apartment?

Luis: Sure, why not? Let's go for it.
